

Treatment for People Hospitalized With COVID-19 in the EU

Treatment Recommendations Based on Severity of Illness

2024 IDSA Guidelines

ECMO, extracorporeal membrane oxygenation; IDSA, Infectious Diseases Society of America; MV, mechanical ventilation; SpO₂, oxygen saturation.

High Risk for Progression to Severe COVID-19

Lower Risk

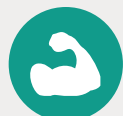

Age

Medical Conditions

COVID-19
Vaccination Status

Immune System

Higher Risk

Higher risk with older age, especially ≥65 yr

Examples: diabetes, kidney disease, obesity, pregnancy

Higher risk in people partially vaccinated or unvaccinated

Higher risk in people who are immunocompromised or receiving immunosuppressive medications

References

Bhimraj. Clin Infect Dis. 2024;78:e250.
cdc.gov/covid/hcp/clinical-care/underlying-conditions.html.
idsociety.org/covid-19-real-time-learning-network/therapeutics-and-interventions/Understanding-Risk-for-Severe-COVID-19.
NIH COVID Guidelines. March 2024.
Werbel. Clin Infect Dis. 2023;77:32.

Scan QR code for more information or visit:
www.clinicaloptions.com/2024inpatientCOVID19